8. Announcements/Correspondence

9. Business Items

a. Veterans Day Ceremony 2021

Background: In the Veterans Commission work plan, it is assigned to the Veterans Commission to work with City staff and supply input regarding the Veterans Day Ceremony. The Commission is instrumental in securing keynote speakers, and relevant ways to celebrate veterans. Commissioners are needed to gather items and information to give away at the Veterans reference table. Commissioners are also needed to sit at the table after the ceremony to hand out information and answer questions.

Recommendation: Discuss the ceremony and assign commissioners to gather information for the reference table and assign commissioners to sit at the table after the ceremony to hand out information and answer questions.

b. Veteran of the Year 2021

Background: Each year the Veterans Commission accepts nominations for Veteran of the Year. Commissioners are requested to please gather applications and possible nominees for the award. Veteran of the year will be announced at the Veterans Day ceremony, and then recognized at the Annual Veterans Luncheon on May 21, 2022. The deadline for nominations is October 29, 2021.

Recommendation: Commissioners please gather application and nominees for the award.

c. Navy Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (NJROTC) Involvement

Background: The NJROTC program at Milpitas High School has expressed an interest in becoming involved with the Veterans Commission. The program has also expressed an interest in receiving support from the Commission.

Recommendation: Chair Ramos will give an update on this item.

d. Adopt A Vet Program

Background: As per the Veterans Commission workplan, Adopt-A-Vet is a standing item. The concept of the Adopt-A-Vet Program was brought up by past Commissioner Denny Weisgerber and voted on by the Veterans Commission to move forward. The concept of the program was for Veterans to make contact with Milpitas elementary schools and the Veterans would visit classrooms throughout the school year to share stories, read to the classes and bring opportunities for the younger generation to understand what being a veteran is.

Recommendation: Chair Ramos will give an update on this item.
