G. Business Items

1. Work Plan Events 2021-22 Review

Prior to each fiscal year, the Commission develops a work plan for the upcoming term which will identify specific goals the group would like to accomplish. Staff presented 2021-22 Work Plan for Commission to review, which encompassed various topics/advisory areas that highlighted Volunteerism, Teen Center and Engaging Youth and Teens. Subcommittees were formed for the following larger scaled tasks:

Health and Mental Wellness – Commissioners F. Huang, Plummer and Gupte
Coding Competition – Commissioners Fengyi Huang, Kaki and Jiang
Spelling Bee – Commissioners C. Huang, Plummer and Gupte.
Final Work Plan will be forwarded over to City Council for approval.

Motion to recommend 2021-22 Work Plan to City Council for final approval.
M/S: F.Huang/Kaki Ayes: All

2. Halloween Teen Event Planning

Commission highlighted specifics for upcoming Welcome back Halloween event to be held at the Milpitas Teen Center on October 29th from 5pm-9pm. It was decided to have various stations which will include crafts, games (Nintendo Switch), trivia playing throughout event, a movie to be shown in Auditorium, and various food items/types provided by Cici's Sweet Treats. There will be an option for participants to wear costumes as well as bring siblings/family to event. Food allergies were a concern and will be researched by Commissioner Plummer for different options. Staff will research decorations for event as Recreation may have options on hand. Marketing for event will be done through an event flyer highlighting details stated above and will be blasted out to schools, friends and community members. The following motions highlighted specific event items:

Motion to show Adams Family 2 movie.
M/S: F.Huang/Plummer Ayes: All

Motion to have Super Smash Brothers at game station.
M/S: F.Huang/Kaki Ayes: All

Event finalized at next meeting with setup taking place on October 28th.

Public comment was received by Urvishkumar Mehta stating he would like to see a balance of nutritional items provided at event.

H. Adjournment

There being no further business, Commissioner Fengyi Huang adjourned the meeting at 5:12pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Justin Yount
