9. Business Items

- a. Legislative Review for Possible Positions Background: The Commission has previously discussed and identified a process for reviewing and recommending City positions on potential legislative bills relevant to the Commission's scope in adherence with the City's adopted Legislative Advocacy Policy and Legislative Guiding Principles (Attachment 1). The annual legislative review was included on the Commission's 2023-2024 Work Plan. Staff has provided a list of potential legislative bills for the Commission to consider in Attachment 2. This list includes a proposed prioritization for consideration and links to view the bill. Commissioners can also identify additional bills for consideration that are not on the attached list. Staff recommends that each Commissioner select no more than two bills that they would like to discuss further.

Recommendation: Discuss and provide feedback on specified bills and recommendations for staff review and potential City position.

10. City Liaison Reports

- Council Liaison Report
- City Staff Report
