9. Business Items

- a. Keep Milpitas Safe & Stable – Madison Nguyen, Interim Economic Development Director, and Kal Zubair, Economic Development Specialist

Background:

Receive a presentation on the City of Milpitas' efforts to gather input from the community, advance equity, and ensure fiscal sustainability.

Recommendation: Receive the presentation.

- b. Enhancing Awareness and Community Resources – Commission Chair

Background:

As outlined in the Senior Advisory Commission FY Work Plan, one of the Commission's priorities is to enhance awareness of community resources available to older adults. These resources include programs and services related to housing assistance, food support, transportation, health and wellness, and dementia awareness. Expanding awareness and understanding of these services, including education that helps reduce stigma and promote a dementia-friendly community, supports the City's commitment to keeping older adults informed, connected, and supported.

Recommendation: It is recommended that the Senior Advisory Commission discuss the details and logistics for the next Dementia Friends educational event scheduled for Saturday, June 13, 2026.

10. Future Agenda Items
