9. Business Items
 - a. Work Plan FY24-25 Review and Work Plan FY 26-27 Discussion – Recreation and Community Services Department Staff

Background: The Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Resources Commission serves as an advisory body to the City Council, providing guidance on matters related to recreation, bicycle and pedestrian trails and access, historic preservation, and the planning and development of both new and existing parks and facilities. Additionally, the Commission plays a vital role in identifying, protecting, and enhancing structures and features that reflect significant aspects of the City's cultural heritage.

Each fiscal year, the Commission develops a Work Plan outlining its goals, projects, and ongoing initiatives. This Work Plan is reviewed and approved annually by the City Council to ensure alignment with the City's priorities and objectives.

Recommendation: Review the Fiscal Year 2025-26 Work Plan and identify the tasks Commissioners would like to include in the Fiscal Year 2026-27 Work Plan.

a. City Park Tour – Recreation and Community Services Department Staff

Background: The Commission, per the approved Work Plan, will annually embark on a City parks and/or facilities tour at their June Meeting. This year's tour will fall on Monday, June 1. The Commission will need to determine the location(s) of the 2026 Park/Facilities tour and the time they would like to start the meeting.

Recommendation: Discuss and approve Park Tour location(s) and meeting time.
